

Disclosure Policy:

LAMMICO requires authors, planners, speakers, faculty and all those who influence the content of a continuing nursing education activity to disclose any financial relationships they have with commercial interests that are relevant to the CNE activity. The disclosures shall be reviewed for any conflict of interest and subject to a mechanism for resolution of conflict of interest. A disclosure statement of relevant financial relationships will be made to the audience prior to the activity.